

Affirmative Action & Civil Rights Compliance Office

The Department of Health and Family Services Affirmative Action/Civil Rights Compliance Office works with the Department's contractors and vendors to ensure compliance with federal and state laws, regulations and departmental policies and procedures prohibiting discrimination in employment and service delivery.

The Office develops and administers the Department's Civil Rights Compliance Plan for contractors/vendors to comply with their federal Title VI responsibilities. The Office also investigates discrimination complaints.

Contact information

Equal Opportunity Information

DHFS Affirmative Action Plan 11/0104 - 06/30/06 (PDF, 741 KB)

ACCESSIBILITY Americans with Disabilities Act accessibility resource information to assist with compliance.

Civil Rights Compliance and Title VI. Information needed by counties, tribes and other Department contractors and vendors to comply with their federal Title VI responsibilities.

Civil Rights Compliance Plan and Resources This page contains the new Civil Rights compliance requirements for contractors and subcontractors of Department of Health and Family Services and Department of Workforce Development for the contract period of January 1, 2004 through December 31, 2006. Additionally, this page contains resources and links to assist contractors and subcontractors complete their Civil Rights Compliance Plan.

Civil Rights Compliance 2006 Training Department of Health and Family Services and Department of Workforce Development joint training calendar for funding recipients civil rights compliance responsibilities.

Limited English Proficiency Resources \(LEP\) This page contains Limited English Proficiency information on training and resources for contractors and subcontractors of Department of Health and Family Services and Department of Workforce Development.

Last Revised: